THE DISCIPLES' DIVINITY HOUSE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO.

RGANICALLY connected with the University of Chicago, and yet chartered as a separate institution under the laws of the State of Illinois, and possessing its own board of trustees, this institution is designed to meet the needs of Disciples of Christ who desire to pursue graduate instruction in preparation for the ministry and other religious work. It utilizes the curriculum provided in the Divinity School of the University, and supplements it by courses of instruction arranged by its trustees and given by its own instructors, dealing with such themes as are particularly pertinent to the history and purposes of the Disciples of Christ. Students who are members of the House have access also to the other departments of the University according to the rules governing the choice of elective studies in the Divinity School. The advantages of the House are that it provides graduates of the colleges of the Disciples of Christ advanced instruction at one of the best of American universities, whose equipment, corps of instructors, libraries and policy make it the equal of any institution accessible to Disciples, and whose situation permits them to engage in religious work in the most important of city mission fields, where the two results of self-assistance in providing for the cost of residence at the University, and also the opportunity to co-operate with the City Mission Board in a forward movement of our cause in Chicago, are obtained. The Hyde Park Church of Christ, organized October 1st, provides a religious home, not only for members of the House, but for other students pursuing work at the University; while the Disciples' Club, in connection with the House, with its bi-weekly meetings, furnishes an opportunity for frequent intellectual and social privileges to the community of Disciples connected with the University. For the year 1894-95, Edward S. Ames is Head of the Divinity House, and J. D. Forrest President of the Disciples' Club. It is the purpose of the Trustees to erect a hall near the University to be used as a dormitory and quarters for the House, and as rapidly as endowment funds are secured to provide additional instructors to offer courses of study in connection with the Dean. Information regarding the House may be obtained upon application. Communications regarding business interests should be addressed to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees. N. S. Haynes, 535 Chestnut St., Chicago. Communications regarding the work of the House should be addressed to the Dean, H. L. Willett. University of Chicago.

What We Plead For.

THE CHRISTIAN-EVANGELIST pleads for:

The Christianity of the New Testament, taught by Christ and his Apostles, versus the theology of the creeds taught by fallible men—as the world's great need.

The divine confession of faith, on which Christ built his church, versus human confessions of faith on which men have SPLIT the Church.

The unity of Christ's disciples, for which he so fervently prayed, versus the divisions in Christ's body, which his apostles so strongly condemned.

The abandonment of sectarian names and practices, based on human authority, for the common family names and the common faith, based on divine authority, versus the abandonment of Scriptural names and usages for partisan ends.

The hearty co-operation of Christians in efforts of world-wide beneficence and evangelization, versus the petty jealousies and strifes in the struggle for denominational pre-eminence.

The fidelity to truth which secures the approval of God, versus conformity to custom to gain the favor of men.

The protection of the home and the destruction of the saloon, versus the protection of the saloon and the destruction of the home.

For the right against the wrong, For the weak against the strong; For the poor who've waited long For the brighter age to be. For the truth, 'gainst superstition, For the faith, against tradition, For the hope, whose glad fruition Our waiting eyes shall see.

ST. LOUIS CHRISTIAN PUBLISHING COMPANY 1895

INTRODUCTION.

It is the custom of the various denominations in the United States to publish an annual report of their growth and condition. This is generally done through what is known as the YEAR BOOK. These books present the information considered most valuable in the history and condition of the church, and such other statistical knowledge as may be desired, in a compact form. Accurate historical data and the knowledge embedded in the tables of Year Books are of the greatest value. Nothing inspires greater hope or more activity than reports that indicate rapid growth in the church. If figures indicate a loss, they in turn become a warning and stimulus to the brave heart.

It will be discovered that the present volume is quite a departure from former publications. There are two reasons for this. First, the work has heretofore fallen largely to the Secretary of our General Christian Missionary Convention. But he has entirely too many burdens without this. Then, it was expensive and tedious work as formerly published. Second, most of our State conventions publish a list of the churches in their States and number of communicants, with their minutes. It is therefore thought unnecessary to republish them in this volume, and we only give a summary.

As to the contents, we have no apology to make. It is hoped that the general statistics will prove helpful to all. Our own statistics and preachers' list are as near accurate as they can be made. The missionary, our publishing interests, and colleges are presented by the organizations they represent. You will find this information accurate and reliable. The Annals of the Disciples of Christ may be somewhat incomplete, but it is hoped with the aid of our friends this part of the book may be made of great value.

The book goes forth on its own merits. It is hoped that the brother-hood at large may see the basis of a helpful annual in this initial volume. All acknowledge that such a work is needed. The author seeks your criticism and aid, and he promises that he will spare no pains to prepare the best book possible. We therefore present this work to the great brotherhood in the hope that it may be of some service in restoring the New Testament church in faith, doctrine, purity and activity.

THE GROWTH OF THE LIBERAL CHURCHES.*

The tables below give the growth of the leading liberal churches in the United States for a half century:

Number of or	ganiz	ation	ns in—
Unitarians Universalists			18	40. 230 853	1850. 246 1,069	1850 254 1,264	328	1880. 335 956	1890. 421 956
Totals				,083	1,315	1,518	1,245	1,291	1,377
This shows th	1840		organizati		17,000	of our	population.
	1850 1860	"	"	"	17,640 $20,713$	"	**

	1890	"	"	"	45,350	"	"

Thus, while the population of the United States increased from 17,063,453 in 1840 to 62,622,250, or 367 per cent, there is scarcely an increase in the number of these organizations. Present statistics indicate that the Unitarians have 67,749 members and the Universalists 49,194. The slow growth of these organizations seems the more remarkable to parties not having studied the causes, when it is remembered that these bodies own some of the leading universities with an endowment of near $10,000,000. Culture, education and refinement are not lacking.

THE GROWTH OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.+

The table below gives the growth of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States for half a century:

Number	of organization	ns in—•
1840.	1850.	1860.	1870.	1880.	1890.
675*	1,850	3,797	5,332	8,540	10,231

While the population has increased from 17,069,453 to 62,622,250, or 387 per cent, the number of Roman Catholic Church organizations have increased from 675 to 10,221 or 1500 per cent. That is, the number of Roman Catholic Church organizations have increased four times as fast as our population. This also shows that the Roman Catholic Church had in—

1840	one	organization	to	25,186	of our	population.
1850	"	• "	" "	12,536	"
1860	"	"	"	8.299	"	" "

1880	"	"	"	5,837	" "	"
1890	"	"	66	6 121	6.6	66

This table shows that there are four times as many Roman Catholic churches now, in proportion to the population, as there were in 1840.

THE GROWTH OF PROTESTANT CHURCHES.+

The following table gives the growth of Protestant Church organizations in the United States since 1840:

Number of	organizations i	n
1840.	1850.	1860.	1870.	1880.	1890.
2 9,000*	43,072	55,037*	70,148	97,090	153,689

Here we have a gain from 29,090 organizations to 153,689, or 530 per cent gain. Or, while the population gained 337 per cent, the number of church organizations among the Protestants gained 530. In proportion to the population this gain is shown as follows:

	L F		F-F		,	5 10 I
1840	one	organization	to	587	of our	population.
1850	"		"	538	" "

1880	6 6	4 4	"	517	"	6 6
1890	"	" "	"	407	6.6	"

This indicates a healthy gain in the population and also the sufficiency of church organizations in this country.

izations in this country.

Now, taking the gain of the three bodies together, the Liberal, Roman Catholic, and Protestant, we have the following table:

1840	Liberal. 1,083 1,377	Roman Catholic. 675 10,231	Protestant. 29,000 153,689
Gain Per cent gain Gain in population 367 per cent.	. 294 . 27	9,556 1500	124,689 530

The Foreign Christian Missionary Society.

The Foreign Christian Missionary Society was organized in Louisville, Kentucky, October 21, 1875. The first officers were: President, Isaac Errett; Vice Presidents, W. T. Moore, J. S. Lamar, Jacob Burnet; Recording Secretary, B. B. Tyler; Corresponding Secretary, R. Moffett; Treasurer, W. S. Dickinson. Isaac Errett served as President till he died, December 19, 1888. Charles Louis Loos was elected his successor. R. Moffett resigned the Corresponding Secretaryship soon after the organization, and W. T. Moore was elected to fill the place. The work demanding more time than he could devote to it, he resigned. W. B. Ebbert was elected and served till March, 1882, when A. McLean was elected. The Society has had but one Treasurer, W. S. Dickinson.

The Society was organized to preach the Gospel where Christ was not already named, that it might not build upon another man's foundation. Nevertheless, the first work done under its auspices was done in England. H. S. Earl was going to begin a work in Southampton in any event. It was thought by him, and by others, that it would be well for him to go out in connection with the Society. He was promised no definite salary; for a time he received only a nominal support. In three years he spent $5,000 of his own funds in the work. began in February, 1876. M. D. Todd began a work in Chester, 1878. The same year W. T. Moore went to Southport. The increase of the force in this field was due to the fact that Timothy Coop offered to pay $5,000 a year, if three men were sent to England. It was felt, at the time, that his offer contemplated a departure or a deflection from the original purpose of the Society. Still, as the greater part of the entire expense was paid in England, it was resolved to accept his offer. Henry Exley went to Tranmere in 1879; his expenses were borne hy another Englishman. The annual report for the year stated that these missions had been planted in England, to focalize, not to monopolize our energies: "These having been sustained by our Society from one to four years, should, and soon will be self-sustaining. While we appreciate highly the advantages of the field now occupied, and favor a most tenacious hold on them, we deem it just and proper to urge upon our evangelists in England to give attention, as they have not yet done, to providing a support for the laborers at home; so that being rapidly relieved of our obligations towards them, we may the more promptly and extensively devote our means, according to our original purpose, to the needy fields of Asia and Africa.'' The Society felt that the time had come when we ought to have missionaries along the course of the Nile, and in the crowded cities and villages of China and Japan. While this was the feeling of the Society, the force in England was steadily increased. Thus, when W. T. Moore left Southport for Liverpool, J. L. Richardson was sent to fill the vacancy. M. D. Todd took the work in Liverpool, W. T. Moore having gone to London. J. M. Van Horn was sent to Chester. The following have been employed since: A. Martin, to work in Birkenhead; W. H. C. Newington, to labor in Liverpool; B. H. Hayden, for Ingleton and Bishopsfield; A. J. L. Gliddon, for Cheltenham; W. Durban, for Fulham; George Brooks, for Brixton; J. E. Powell, for Southampton, H. S. Earl having gone from that point first to Cheltenham, and afterward to Liverpool; F. W. Troy, first for Cheltenham, and afterward for Gloucester, and last for Liverpool, H. S. Earl having returned home; J. J. Haley, for Birkenhead, J. M. Van Horn having resigned to come to America: T. S. Buckingham, for Cheltenham. On the resignation of T. S. Buckingham, E. H. Spring and W. E. Hogg were employed to take the work at Cheltenham and Gloucester. In 1891 W. T. Moore gave up his work at the West London Tabernacle to devote his whole time to the Christian Commonwealth. After a year G. T. Walden was elected to take his place. W. E. Hogg having resigned at Gloucester, Eli Brearley was engaged to take his work. W. Durham exchanged Fulham for Hornsey. F. W. Troy resigned at Liverpool; H. Milner Black was employed to fill the vacancy. J. E. Powell left Southampton in 1893, and H. L. Gow was sent to that pulpit. J. J. Haley closed his services in Birkenhead in October, 1894. The increase of the working forces in Eng. land was chiefly owing to the appeals and generosity of Timothy Coop and They contributed largely to the Society directly, and still his two sons. more largely to the work indirectly. It was their earnest desire that the Society should select the workers and direct their work. In a conference with the Board in 1884, Timothy Coop stated that the church property in England was worth $83,000, and that this represented a larger sum than the Society had spent in England altogether. The results are worth all and far more than all they have cost. No men could labor more faithfull than have the men who have been and are now in England. expectation of self-support, in from one to four years, has not been realized. Of the men sent to England, J. L. Richardson and M. D. Todd have gone to their long home.

Scandinavia.—The work in Denmark began in June, 1876. Dr. A. Holck, a native of Denmark, but a resident of this country, united with the church in Cincinnati. It soon became evident that he was a man of great faith, earnest piety, and endowed with superior intellectual attainments. It was his desire to return to Denmark as a missionary. After a full and free conference he was appointed. He began to preach in Copenhagen. In addition to his preaching, Dr. Holck has published a religious paper. In 1885, O. C. Mikkelsen was sent to aid in the mission. Dr. Holck receives $1,800; out of this he supports eight Evangelists. The influence of his work was not confined to Denmark; it extended in a little while to Norway and Sweden. There are now several hundred Disciples in these countries. Their great need is that of competent men to preach to them. They have a number of evangelists, but they need men of culture and consecration who can serve them acceptably as settled ministers. They have suffered not a little from Plymouth Brethrenism.

France.—A mission was opened in Paris in February, 1878, by Jules De Launay and wife. The committee could offer them only $300 in cash and whatever might be sent to the treasury especially for the French Mission. It was not believed that these terms would be accepted. They were promptly and gladly accepted, however, and the missionaries proceeded to Paris without delay. In 1880 Miss Anne C. Crease was employed to aid in the work. The Christian Woman's Board paid her salary. E. Roque was employed for a season; but his services not being satisfactory, he was not continued in the work. In 1886 the Convention recommended that this mission be discontinued, on the ground that it could not be made a success, because of existing obstacles, without incurring more expense than the Society can meet.

Turkey.—The Turkish work began in October, 1879. G. N. Shishmanian was the pioneer in the field. An Armenian by birth, he became a Christian, in Dallas, Texas. After a course in the College of the Bible, Lexington, Ky., he was appointed a missionary to his native land. He settled in Constantinople. From this center he has gone out into all parts of the empire. A number of churches have been planted by In 1884, Dr. Garabed Kevorkian, another Armenian, was sent to Tocat. Afterwards he made Marsivan the center of his operations. In response to urgent appeals he has traveled far and wide. In his evangelistic tours he has been in peril from robbers more than once. Hohannes Karagiozian was sent to Marash, in Cilicia. He has labored at this and at other points in that part of Turkey in Asia. In 1892 his connection with the Society closed. Work has been done at other points, and several helpers have been employed. The Isaac Errett Memorial Chapel was erected in Smyrna.

India.—This great field was entered in 1882. Although the Society was organized to send the gospel to the heathen, it was seven years old before it had a single missionary on heathen soil. At the same time the original purpose was kept steadily in view. Within a few weeks after the organization, one man was asked to go to Japan and another to India. Year after year the Convention urged that work be begun in heathen

Thus in 1881 the Convention declared anew and with added emphasis that "the purpose of the Society was to plant congregations of Christian believers in lands distinctively and admittedly pagan, idolatrous and heathen, and our work is foreign, in the true sense, only in so far as we keep this prominently in view, and labor for its realization." "The work we are doing abroad, most of it, at least, is not strictly foreign missionary work; it is not done for the Christianization of the heathen: its end is not the salvation of men and women from idolatry with all its abominations." "It is something indeed, and it is well, to lead to a clear knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus those already instructed to some extent, and evangelized, and committed to the Christ; but it is not strictly foreign missionary work, and should not in our judgment be so termed.'' The reason has been assigned already why so large a share of the funds of the Society were spent in England. The proposal to begin a work on heathen ground met with instant and hearty approval. This was manifested in the fact that the year our first missionaries sailed for India the income of the Society was almost twice as great as the year There were rejoicings and thanksgivings among the friends of the Society. The first group of missionaries to India consisted of Albert Norton and wife, G. L. Wharton and wife, and four ladies sent out by the Woman's Board. Soon after reaching India, Albert Norton resigned. The missionaries selected Hurda as their headquarters. The next year, M. D. Adams and wife were sent out to take the place vacated by the Nortons. It was thought advisable for them to settle in Bilaspur. In 1886, G. W. Jackson, an experienced missionary, was employed to labor in Mungeli. The same year Miss Helen Levermore was sent from the West London Tabernacle to aid in the school and zenana work at Hurda The next year Miss Sue A. Robinson, of St. Louis, Mo., Dr. C. S. Durand and wife, and Ishwar Charan Dey were selected to labor in this mis-In 1891 Miss Mary Thompson was sent to India by the churches in Australia; John G. McGavran, W. E. Rambo and wife were sent out from this country. F. M. Gordon and W. E. Cooper were engaged to aid the work in Mungeli. In 1893 Miss Hattie L. Judson was sent out to take the place left vacant by the death of Miss Sue A. Robinson. same year Miss Josepha Franklin and Dr. A. W. Hitt and wife were employed to serve in this field. That year G. W. Jackson resigned. then W. E. Cooper severed his connection with the Society. During the past year (1894) Dr. Durand has built a Hospital in Hurda and has begun work on a Leper Aylum. Three years ago G. L. Wharton opened a Bible and Training School.

Japan.—Our first missionaries sailed for Japan in 1883. The first group consisted of G. T. Smith and wife, and C. E. Garst and wife. They made Akita their first home. Here Mrs. Josephine Smith died and was

The same year F. Staniland and wife were sent out from England. Two years later Eugene Snodgrass and wife accompanied G. T. Smith to Akita. In 1889 P. B. Hall joined the mission. F. Staniland was recalled; P. B. Hall's health failed and he returned to America. The missionaries deemed Tokyo the best center of the work, and left Akita. The work at the latter point is carried on by native helpers. The missionaries visit it and aid it as they have opportunity. In 1892, E. S. Stevens, Dr. Nina Stevens, Miss Lavinia Oldham, and Miss Mary Rioch sailed for Japan. The next year H. H. Guy and wife followed them. G. T. Smith and wife are now in this country. Eugene Snodgrass resigned some time ago. During the past year a Training School for Evangelists has been opened, and a magazine has been started.

China.—Dr. W. E. Macklin went out to Japan as a medical missionary. Not being needed in Japan, he went to China, arriving in Shanghai, January 29, 1886. He established his headquarters in Nankin and called That year E. P. Hearndon and A. F. H. Saw went for reinforcements. out from the West London Tabernacle. The next year E. T. Since the Allegheny Convention, Miss Ince and Miss White went out from London. Miss Emma Lyon went out in 1892. A large Hospital has been erected in Nankin. In that city three homes have been erected and a school building. One home has been erected in Wuhu. Drs. Macklin and Butchart carry on the medical work; F. E. Meigs has charge of the school; the others are engaged in evangelistic work. W. P. Bentley is General Secretary of the Endeavor Society in China.

Africa.—The Society is preparing to enter the Dark Continent. It hopes to begin work there before the next Annual Convention.

REASON FOR ORGANIZATION.

The Church Extension Fund was organized in 1883, because of a cry that came up from the West and South, saying: "You have converted and organized us, but have left us meeting in halls, vacated store rooms, school houses and improvised shelters here and there, and we are dying about as fast as we have been organized because we cannot hold our own, meeting from pillar to post, while all other religious bodies have immense church extension funds, which, by supplementary aid, put their missions on their feet as soon as organization has been effected by helping them to church homes. Create us a fund from which we can borrow at a reasonable rate and on five years' time; for to borrow at the exorbitant rates charged in all new country, on short time and from soulless secular organizations, is to invite disaster." And this was proven later and is being proven to-day by loans being asked of our Fund every year to pay mortgages which are being foreclosed on our missions in different parts of the United States, many of which are paying from 18 to 24 per cent a vear interest.

Up to Jan. 1st, 1895, 230 loans have been made and we now have $102,000 in cash loaned out, which is secured by first mortgage with an absolutely clear title, and house insured for full length of loan. The Board also has $105,000 in five year pledges. Last year, the collections from these pledges came within five per cent of all that was due, the Board receiving over $19,000 from these pledges.

THE PLAN WORKS WELL.

The Church Extension Plan is to loan this money for five years to aid mission churches in securing meeting houses that they could not get without aid from some outside source. The loans are made on the following conditions: (a) That the building is actually needed. (b) That they have done all they could toward first buying the lot and commencing the building. (c) That the loan asked pays every debt. (d) That they give first mortgage security. (e) That they insure the house for the full length of loan. The money is to be returned to the Board within five years in equal annual installments with four per cent interest, payable semi-annually. It can be paid sooner if the church desires. Up to January first, 1895, there has been paid back in loans and in interest on loans, over $36,000. This money goes out again on its mission of aid.

NEED OF THIS FUND.

The Protestant religious bodies of the United States have builded over 25,000 church homes the last thirty years by the Church Extension Plan. They declare it an indispensable agency in planting churches in this country. Large loans are made to plant churches in the developing wards in every city in the United States as well as smaller loans in medium and smaller towns. We have about 9,000 organizations in the United States, and only about 5,950 have church homes. About 1,200 churches applied for aid to this Board the last six years.

CHURCH EXTENSION PAYS.

1st. The money is loaned to a church and the next year one-fifth of the money with four per cent interest comes back to be loaned out to the second church, and so on, until, at the end of five years, the whole amount is paid back. This is better than giving the money. A church can pay a loan back in annual payments easier than they can pay hall rent, and the same money builds churches again and again.

2nd. Every dollar put into this Fund calls out three or four dollars more, because the mission church raises from three to four times the amount the Board loans. The beneficiaries first help themselves.

3rd. The Board assists a mission to begin right by clearing up defective titles, for no loan will be made except on a perfectly clear title, and, when the loan is returned, the property is clear, so that, if a railroad or some objectionable building be put near the church, or from some other cause the location should be changed, the property can be sold and the advance in the price of the lot will go to the work of the Lord and not "revert to the original heirs."

4th. Aid from this fund assists our people to get on the ground first. We then get choice locations, and further, we shape the religious thought of the community with our Plea.

5th. The young men who go West are poor but determined. Help them to church homes now, by supplementary aid from this Fund, for the poor young man of to-day will make the rich man of to-morrow, and if our plea reaches him with its helpfulness, he will be the helpful, rich Disciple of Christ to push his work in the future.

6th. If we go into towns early in their history of development we can get a house and lot for what the lot alone will cost in later years. There are hundreds of organizations among us that are heroic enough to begin our work if we can only supplement what they are able to do to help themselves. It will pay to help heroic bands that will help themselves first, because a church that cannot raise money enough to buy a lot and commence a building, has not sufficient strength or means to become a useful agency in the future for pushing the Master's work. Feebleness is a strong claim for help, but the possibility of large usefulness is a stronger claim. A corporal's guard may be strong enough for the arrest of a straggler, but would be decidedly feeble for taking a stronghold.

Up to December 31st, 1894, we have gained fifty per cent in the number of contributing churches over last year. The chief thing is not the amount of the collection, but the fact of the church sending one. If the churches begin to send collections, the size will increase each year as the good work of this Board is understood. Let every preacher co-operate with this Board in keeping the Church Extension Offering before his congregation every year as an objective point, and the results in years to come will be astonishing. Remittances should be made to Negro Education and Evangelization.

The work of the Church of Christ among the Negroes of the South since the organization of the first Board of Negro Education and Evangelization at the National Convention held in Des Moines, Iowa, in October, 1890.

BOARD FIRST SELECTED.

J. T. Hawkins; E. S. Powell; H. L. Stone; W. J. Loos; Joseph Erwin; W. S. Giltner, and J. W. McGarvey.

PRESENT BOARD.

J. P. TORBITT, W. S. GILTNER,
GEO. DARSIE, W. E. GRINSTEAD,
SIDNEY THOMSON.

During the first year after the selection of the first Board, no suitable man could be secured to take this work as Corresponding Secretary, and, although during the year appeals were made through the press, only $35 was contributed. After expenses were paid, $6.10 was left in the treasury at the time the Corresponding Secretary commenced his work. This same year, however, from voluntary contributions and through the work of J. B. Lehman and Anna Doyen, $680.84 was raised for the Southern Christian Institute. At the National Convention held in Allegheny in 1891, the Board was reorganized, and C. C. Smith was chosen Corresponding Secretary. He commenced work Jan. 1st, 1892. At the same time he was chosen Secretary of the Southern Christian Institute, and reported for both Boards at the National Convention held in Nashville in Oct. 1892.

In December, 1892, the Board of the S. C. I. was reorganized, and four members of the Board of Negro Education and Evangelization were chosen members of this Board. It is necessary to have this separate Board of the S. C. I., with three of its members from Mississippi, in order to keep the charter of the S. C. I. inviolate, so that while practically the work is all controlled by one Board, it is necessary to have the two Boards. This explains the necessity of having two separate reports each year.

Since the selection of the Corresponding Secretary, the yearly reports have been as follows:

In 1894 Anna Doyen was not in the field, hence the great decrease in the contributions for the S. C. I. But in 1893 and '94 there was a gain in the amount raised for the B. N. E. E. of over $1,000, and if we add the amount raised up to Dec. 1, 1894, the total cash receipts are $20,-214.51. In addition to the above is the following amount raised each year by the S. C. I. for self-support:

1892,	$1,054 54
1893,	1,922 51
1894,	1,904 33
Total.	$4.881 48

Grand total of all moneys raised in two years and nine months, $23,-230.36. Grand total of all moneys raised for the full three years, over $25,000. The above is exactly on the basis of reports made by other churches; that is, when the M. E. Church reports that it has raised $250 for this work, it includes the amount raised by its schools for self-support. But the above does not include the amounts raised by States and cities to aid their colored brethren, which cannot be accurately ascertained, but we hope to collect fuller statistics in future years.

The Boards of the B. N. E. E. and S. C. I. have raised this year during October and November $1,865.63, against $1,446.04 last year during the same time, a gain of $419.59.

The above named Boards have under their control two Schools, viz., a Bible School, and the Southern Christian Institute. The Bible School is located at Louisville, Ky. A. J. Thompson is President, and Octavius Singleton (colored), a graduate of the Literary Course of Hiram College, O., Assistant. Here young men are taught the Bible and other things necessary to an efficient ministry. They are trained in preaching and in the administration of God's house, and given the highest ideals of character. Thirty-three students were enrolled last year, and made encouraging progress. In connection with the School a library has been started in the name of B. U. Watkins. The School at present occupies a rented building, and has only the very scantiest furniture. It has $3,342 in available funds for the purchase of real estate.

The Southern Christian Institute is near Edwards, Miss. J. B. Lehman is President. He has four assistant teachers. The annual enrollment is about 100. The expense of attending the Institute is $9.00 per month, which includes board, room rent, fuel, light, and tuition.

The grounds on which the buildings of the Institute stand are beautifully situated on the banks of the Big Black river. The plantation, containing eight hundred acres, is very productive, and at the present low price of real estate is worth $15,000, on which there is a debt of two thousand. Some much-needed repairs are now being placed on the buildings. The School suffers from the lack of necessary apparatus, which money could supply. The library should be enlarged. We must soon build a new school building, the present being required for dormitories. The School has a high standing among the white people of the vicinity. Eight colored students are being assisted to an education at Hiram College, O.

We are doing evangelizing work in three States, and the C. W. B. M. is aiding to the amount of $200 a year in maintaining a general Evangelist among the colored people.

Since the organization of the Board of Negro Education and Evangelization no debts have been accrued, and $2,500 of previous indebtedness on the S. C. I. has been liquidated. It is its policy to convert all interest accruing on funds and all bequests into the real estate fund. It will not incur indebtedness. Its financial management should commend itself to business men. No money given for the cause of God is made to go further toward the accomplishment of its purpose.

For all of the above, and for much more that needs to be done, we require the support of the brotherhood to a much greater degree than we have yet received.

C. C. SMITH, Cor. Sec., Massillon.

The Christian Woman's Board of Missions.

This Association was organized in Cincinnati, O., Oct. 21, 1874, and was incorporated under the laws of the State of Indiana, with headquarters at Indianapolis, in 1880. The objects of this organization are the disseminating of missionary intelligence, the increasing of missionary zeal, the securing of systematic contributions for missions, and the supporting of ministers and teachers on the mission field.

Any person may become a member of the Association who will contribute the sum of ten cents per month to its fund. One may become a life member by the payment of $25 in not more than two payments within two years. An annual membership is $5 per year. The members, for the most part, are associated in Auxiliaries in the churches, and these Auxiliaries hold regular monthly meetings.

An annual mass meeting is held in connection with the General Convention, at which officers are elected, reports are made, and other general business is transacted. During the interval between these annual meetings the business of the Association is carried on by the Executive Committee, consisting of the National officers and five unofficial members, residing at or near headquarters. The National officers are the President, Vice-President, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and Superintendent of Young People's department. The entire Executive Committee comprises not only these members named, but the non-resident members, who are a President and Secretary for each State. In matters requiring the vote of all this Executive Committee, the subject is placed before these non-resident members and their votes obtained by correspondence. The portion of the Executive Committee residing at or near headquarters, holds regular monthly meetings for the prosecution of the ordinary business of the Association. members (including three of the National officers) constitute a quorum.

The General Fund of the Association is supported by the contributions of Auxiliaries and by incidental offerings from the friends of the C. W. B. M. The Endowment Fund is built up by bequests and life memberships, whose donors have designated the sums to this fund. The interest is used in aid of foreign work. It now amounts to $19,607.88. The permanent Memorial Fund consists of amounts given in honor of deceased friends, and it is the understanding that the interest thereon shall be used in the aid of Western missions only. This fund is now $1,720.62. Last year Mrs. Ruth Mercer Miller, Tiffin, O., gave $500, which is to be kept as a permanent fund, the interest going to any object the C. W. B. M. designates, and the fund named the Ruth M. Miller Memorial Fund. Other funds are the Bible Chair Fund, created for the inauguration and establishment of the Bible Chair work when action was taken that nothing should be used from the regular General Fund contributions to maintain that work; the Organizer's Fund, used in the prosecution of work to impart missionary information and increase the number of our Auxiliary Societies; the Builder's Fund, created from the contributions from our Young People's department, and used in the erection of buildings on the mission fields; the Orphanage Fund, made up of offerings to support the orphan children adopted by our missionaries in India; the Payne Memorial Fund, which has been given largely by Missouri, to pay for the Bozeman, Montana, Church as a memorial for Miss M. Lou Payne and her father, and several smaller funds.

The receipts of the Association have been as follows, up to Oct. 1, 1894:

There are Auxiliary Societies in nearly all States of the Union, comprising a membership of 30,744. There are also 633 Junior Christian Endeavor Societies and Mission Bands contributing to the missions of the C. W. B. M.

This Association, organized as a Board of Missions, is neither home nor foreign, but taking the motto, "The love of Christ constraineth us," works with equal interest for the salvation of souls in every clime. Other things being equal, the location of a field, according to the commonly used terms home and foreign, does not influence the decision regarding its adoption. The C. W. B. M. now has work in the following locations: In the Island of Jamaica, eighteen churches and one mission point in five Districts; in India, three stations, Bilaspur, Bina and Deoghur; in the United States, Bible Chairs, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Chi-ne e Mission, Portland, Ore.; the whole States of Montana and Colorado, ai ing churches to maintain preaching of the gospel; assisting in the support of the State Evangelist in Washington; California, aiding Eureka an 'Sacramento; Oregon, Third Church, Portland; Utah, Ogden; Kansa, North Topeka; Minnesota and Wisconsin, Head of the Lakes, Duluth and Southern District; Michigan, Ann Arbor; New York, Buffalo and Rochester; Pennsylvania, Altoona; Virginia, Newport News and Charlottesville; Georgia, Athens; North Carolina, Winston; Kentucky, Mountain Mission at Hazel Green. The work in Colorado is done wholly by an appropriation to the Missionary Board of that State and the sustaining of our Evangelist for the West. Montana receives an appropriation to its State Board, besides the aid sent directly to some of the churches. The Cadillac, Mich., church has been aided this year with a single appropriation, although not adopted as one of the points under the care of this Board.

All moneys for subscriptions to either paper, contributions to any part of the C. W. B. M. work, and orders for Treasurers' books and leaflets should be sent to Lois A. White, 160 N. Delaware St., Indianapolis, Ind. Send to the foregoing address for sample copies of the papers, constitutions, and other supplies for the Auxiliaries, Jurior Endeavor Societies and Mission Bands.

The Missionary Tidings, a 20-page monthly, the subscription price of which is 50 cents a year, is the official bulletin of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, and medium of communication between the National Board and other members, and the disseminator of missionary intelligence to all its readers. This paper, established May, 1883, now averages 11,000 copies for each issue.

The Little Builders at Work, a 16-page monthly, the price of which is 25 cents a year, and the issue 7,000 copies a month, was begun in May, 1890. This paper bears the same relation to the Young People's department of the C. W. B. M. that the Tidings does to the older Auxiliaries.

ITEM—I give, devise and bequeath unto the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, a corporation having its headquarters at Indianapolis, in the State of Indiana, and incorporated under the laws of said State, the following property (here describe it), to be sold by said corporation, and the proceeds to be used by it for the purposes for which said corporation was organized, as set forth in its articles of incorporation.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this day of, 189-. (Seal)

The foregoing instrument was on this day of, 189-, signed, sealed, published and declared as his last will and testament by said, testator, in our presence as witnesses, who, in his (or her) presence, and at his (or her) request, and in the presence of each other, have signed our names as witnesses.

- 2. Should it be so desired, the language of the above form can be modified so as to confine the use of the devise or bequest to any one of the purposes for which the corporation was organized, to the exclusion of the others.
- 3. The laws of the State where the testator resides should be carefully followed in making a will, but it is believed that the foregoing will suffice in any State. Having the above form before him, any lawyer can give full expression to the wishes of a testator desiring to further the objects of this Association.

Thirteen Reasons

Why This is the Very College You Are Wishing to Find.

Read these Reasons with Care. Every one of them is an Honest Statement of

- It is the CHEAPEST first-class college in the country; its Tuition is low; good, plain, Table Board in the College Club is about $1.75 (often less); you can generally RENT BOOKS instead of buying; and foolish expenses are discouraged here instead of being compelled by the fashion.
- 2. The teachers will give you a warm and hearty welcome. They know how to make the young and timid feel at home.
- The students are like a company of brothers and sisters. This college is remarkable for the absence of cliques and all those mean class hatreds.
- 4. No time is wasted in those hateful struggles between students and faculty. This college is full of the healthful spirit of good order.
- 5. Oskaloosa is an orderly city, largely free from the great temptations.
- 6. We give special attention to fitting TEACHERS for their work.
- Those preparing to be PREACHERS are trained to extraordinary skill and quickness in making sermons.
- 8. Training in the great art of OFF-HAND SPEAKING receives large attention here.
- Plain, common-sense ELOCUTION is a prominent part of our work. Voices are made deep and powerful, and reading rich and expressive.
- ro. Our methods of training in the LANGUAGES—Latin, Greek, German, etc.—are vastly superior to those in common use.
- II. We devote unusual attention to LITERATURE, filling the entire school with love and enthusiasm for the noblest authors.
- 12. We give time, study and drill to the RULES OF PARLIAMENTARY ORDER. Our students excel as parliamentarians.
- 13. We believe this college to be more wide-awake and more full of ORIGINALITY AND INSPIRATION than any other you can find.
